Spring is almost here and that means there's a lot of important news for you! Check out the stories below for information on the Spring Trip, Advisement for Summer/Fall, a job opportunity for next year, and scholarships!

Spring Trip—The City Museum St. Louis

Friday, March 18th

Museum isn't exactly the way to describe this place. Maybe giant, recycled, fantastical world is better. We'll spend the morning at the City Museum and the afternoon at the Galleria Mall (which has a food court, Cheesecake Factory, and Johnny Rockets for lunch). The cost includes transportation, admission to the museum, and, of course, the always important--snacks for the bus.

Seating is limited and the deadline to sign-up is March 11

The cost is $15 and does not include lunch

Scholarship Deadline

IMPORTANT!

The deadline to apply for ICC Scholarships is April 1st. The application form is available on the ICC website.

- Minimesters for May and August are also scheduled at this time.

We always recommend that you make an appointment with you QUEST advisor and your program advisor.

Pie the Professor

Fundraiser benefiting QUEST Transfer Scholarships

Pie the Professor is in full swing and raising money! QUEST members will be in the Student Lounge on Mondays and Wednesdays looking for people to "vote" for the professor they would like to see pied. Students, Faculty and Staff can vote by putting money in the jar of the professor that they would like to see pied. If you have free time between 11 and 1 and would like to help at the tables please let us know!

Here are the professors (and a coach and 2 QUEST advisors) who have volunteered to participate:

REMEMBER--the student who nominated the professor that raises the most money will win a $10 gift card to Cafe Breve/Food Services so be sure to promote the professor you nominated!

QUEST Student Worker Positions

Applications available at Friday's SAC Meeting

Are you looking for a job on campus? So you like working as part of a team? So you enjoy planning events? Are you a leader? If so, a job as a QUEST student worker might be for you. We have two positions available. Stop by the QUEST office for more information.

Volunteers Needed

The Student Activities office is looking for volunteers to help set up for their final coffee house of the year. Set up will take place on Monday, March 7th in the afternoon. If you are interested in helping contact the QUEST office!
