

SPRING 2009 Final Exam Schedule

Your finals will be held in the regularly scheduled classroom at the time specified unless your instructor makes other arrangements.

The class time and day shown (classes to be examined) correspond to the lecture beginning time and days the class meets as published in the Class Schedule.

Instructors will make arrangements for final exams for classes not shown on this schedule or if there are conflicts.

Graduation is Saturday afternoon, May 16.

Note: Weekend College final exams are given during finals week.

College closings due to bad weather or other emergencies are announced on local radio, television and posted on the ICC website (www.icc.edu). When in doubt, students can call 694-5-ICC for up-to-date closing information.

If the college closes during finals week, students should:

- Call their instructor for new date and time.
- Call the department office for the course to check on the room assignment.
