

Creating Significant Learning

This series on teaching in the community college will be based on Creating Significant Learning Experiences by L. Dee Fink and other effective practice resources.

Thursdays
(5 sessions)

- March 20
- March 27
- April 10
- April 17
- April 24

4:30 to 5:45 PM
Snacks provided

Session Facilitators:

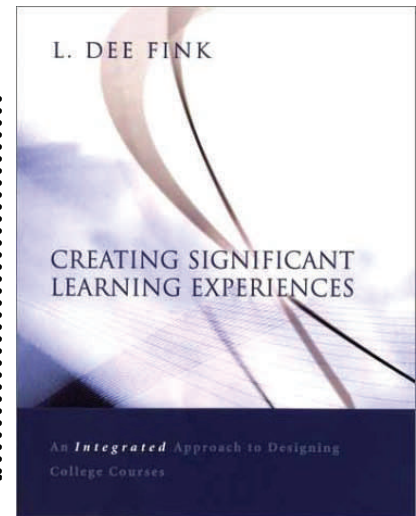

Patrice Hess, Director,
Organizational Learning

Janice Kinsinger,
Associate Dean,
Instructional Innovation &
Learning Resources

To register, contact tlc@icc.edu or 694-8908

Faculty who attend all five sessions will earn their copy of Creating Significant Learning Experiences
by L. Dee Fink and a certificate of completion.

Creating Significant Learning will guide faculty through the processes and experiences related to teaching in the community college.

Sessions will cover:

- What is Significant Learning?
- Integrated Course Design
- The Business of Teaching
- Creating A Community of Learners
- Student Engagement and Active Learning
- Assessment and Evaluation

Recommended Participants:

All interested faculty: adjunct and full-time, new and experienced

Registration deadline is Thursday, March 6.
There are 15 seats available in this series.

All sessions will be held in the Teaching & Learning Center, 240A, on the East Peoria campus.